THE GARNER FAMILY
OF JOHNSTON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

Sources for information on the Garner family in Johnston County, North Carolina, were census records, marriage records, Johnston County, North Carolina, Will Abstracts 1746-1825 by Ross, Deed Records, Will Records, Settlement of Estates Records and eleven volumes of Johnston County Court Minutes.

The first census of Johnston County, North Carolina, which was taken in 1784-1787 listed three Garner men as follows:

Joseph Garner, Sr.	2 males between 21 and 60 7 females	3 males under 21 and over 60
John Garner, Jr.	1 male between 21 and 60	3 females
John Garner, Sr.	1 male between 21 and 60 4 females	4 males under 21 and over 60

This was the only census record found on John Garner, Sr. and Jr. A deed was found for 490 acres of land on the north side of Little Creek and both sides of Judith Hole dated January 1, 1763 from the Earl of Granville to John Garner. A more thorough search of the deed records might reveal more about this father and son. Probably they sold their land and moved away from Johnston County before 1800. John Garner, Sr. may have been the person receiving land in 1763 and he may have been the son of Joseph Garner (Sr.) who died in 1772.

In the book of will abstracts mentioned above, page 75 #282, the will of Joseph Garner is listed. It was dated January 19, 1769 and probated in the August court 1772. In this will he gave four daughters and four sons five shillings each. To a fifth son, Lazarus, he gave all rights to a tract of land where "he now lives" on the south side of Great Buffalo Swamp including the plantation, also the remainder of his estate. His executor was Lazarus Garner. On August 26, 1772 an inventory of Joseph Garner's estate was ordered to be filed.

In Book II of the Johnston County Court Minutes on page 103, items #233 and #234 were as follows:

"Administration of the Estate of Lazarus Garner is granted to Edith Garner, widow of said deceased, who entered into bond with Charles Williams and John Garner, her sureties in the sum of 150 pounds and returned an inventory." This mention of John Garner would further seem to prove that he may have been a brother of Lazarus and the same John Garner as mentioned above as John Garner, Sr.

"Ordered that Joseph Garner, Junr. take into possession such part of the Estate of Joseph Garner, Sr., Dec'd. as he is entitled to pursuant to the will of the said Dec'd. Lazarus Garner the legatee not having at present any Issue and that the present Possessor, Edith Garner, deliver up the same." This was dated November 26, 1775.

The name of Garner if English and means a descendant of Garner or Warner (protection, warrior).

JOSEPH GARNER OF JOHNSTON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

1. JOSEPH GARNER (SR.), died early 1772; wife's name is unknown as she was not living at the time of his death. Children mentioned in will:

   2. Sarah, married _____Whilley
   3. Prudence, married _____Powell
   4. Esther, married _____ Honeycutt
   5. Charity, married _____Honeycutt
   6. William
   7. Joseph, married Christain _____; see below
   8. John, probably the John Sr. mentioned on page 1
   9. Jacob
   10. Lazarus, married Edith _____. He died between 1769 and November 1775

7. JOSEPH GARNER (JR.), married CHRISTAIN _____. He died about 1794. Administration of his estate listed below. Children mentioned in Court Records.

   11. Christain, married William Batcher 3-1-1795, Bondsman Thomas Cockrell
   12. Lucy, married _____Walker
   13. Betsy, married Daniel Rogers 11-27-1792. It is believed that she died before the settlement of the estate because Daniel Rogers received a share of said estate. Probably she left small children.
   14. Willis, married Sarah Cockrell 12-12-1797, Bondsman William Garner
   15. Elisha, married Sally Brown 10-1-1799
   16. Sarah
   17. Lyda (Lydia), married Daniel Rogers 11-27-1797. Probably this was the widower of her sister Betsy
   18. Selah
   19. Moses, married Mary Cockrell 8-25-1800; see Cockrell Family
   20. DICK (DICKY), married SIMON COCKRELL 3-21-1803, see Cockrell Family No.4
   21. William, married Mary _____ He may have been the oldest son, as he had already received his share from his father.

The first mention of Joseph Garner, Jr. was in the Court Minutes of July 1767, page 9, #20. "Ordered that Joseph Garners Junr mark be recorded which is two swallow tails and a small half Moon under the left ear."

In the Court Minutes, Book III, page 23, #70 on 11-30-1778 it is "ordered that Joseph Garner be overseer of the Road from the Neuse River Road to Little River bridge at Faulk". Then on page 41, #121 it is "ordered that William Sterling be overseer of the road in room and district of Joseph Garner.

In the same book on page 82, #229, with the date of 11-25-1782 the following grant was presented in open Court and ordered registered to-wit: The State to Joseph Garner - Grant No. 586.

In the same book on page 89, #253 Joseph Garner was a juror with the date listed as 5-31-1784. Then on page 177, #317 with the date of 5-29-1786 it says the following - "It having been proved to this Court by the oath of Joseph Garner that he stands charged on Taxable list with 500 acres of land more than he possesses - Ordered that he be discharged from the tax on the said 500 acres and the Collector is hereby directed - not receive the same."

In the book Roster of North Carolina Soldiers in the American Revolution on page 259 under a heading of (Warrenton) is the following:

No.	Name & Rank	By Whom Received
3158	Joseph Garner	Tho. Butcher

It is believed that this Joseph Garner was the same as the Joseph Garner of Johnston County. In 1767 he apparently was old enough to have a cattle brand registered. It would sound reasonable that he was married at the time of his father's will dated in 1769. In 1776 he was the overseer of a road. He was probably born around 1745, which would have made him in his thirties during the American Revolution.

In the Court Minute Book of Johnson County, Vol. V - 1793-1797 there were a number of references to the estate of Joseph Garner as follows:

Page 54 #141 - Tuesday February 24, 1795 - Administration on the estate of Joseph Garner decsd, is granted to Christain Garner who came to Court and entered into bond in the sum of five hundred pounds currency with William Garner and William Smith her securities for the faithful discharge of her duty therein and qualified agreeably to law and on Oath returned an Inventory, Ordered that letters issue when were present Richard Rivers, Joseph Ingram and Hardy Bryan escrs. Ordered Christain Garner, Administrator, have leave to sell the Personal Estate of Joseph Garner, Decsd. agreeably to Law.

Page 66 #178 - Wednesday May 27, 1795 - Returned by the Administrator an account of Sales of the Estate of Joseph Garner, decsd. amounting to L192 current money which was ordered to be filed.

Page [illegible] #186 - September 1, 1795 Tuesday - Returned into Court on Oath by Christain Garner, Admnx. a Part Inventory of the Estate of Joseph Garner, decsd. which was ordered filed.

Page 99, #255 - Tuesday May 31, 1796 - Pursuant to an order of last Court Robert Bailey Esq. and Frederick Hollerman made Return of a settlement by them made with Christain Garner Admx. of the Estate of Joseph Garner, decsd. from which it appears there is a balance now in the hands of said Admx. of L194..2..7, which was ordered to be filed. And at the same time made return of a division by them of the said decsd. Estate amongst the lawful Representatives thereof which was ordered filed.

Page 99, #248 - Tuesday May 31, 1796 - Moses Garner, orphan of Joseph Garner, being of Proper age, came into Court and chose for his Guardian Willis Garner who came into Court and entered into bond in the Sum of One Hundred pounds Current Money with John Hayles and John Duck his securities. Ordered that Willis Garner be appointed Guardian to Dicy Garner, orphan of Joseph Garner, deceased, who came into Court and entered into Bond in the sum of One Hundred Pounds Current Money with John Hayles and John Duck his securities. (According to the ages listed on census records of DICEY GARNER COCKRELL, she was born between 17[illegible] and 17[illegible]. Therefore she would have been between twelve and sixteen years of age when her brother, Willis Garner, was appointed her guardian.)

Page 116 #321 - Tuesday February 28, 1797 - William Hatcher, Christain Hatcher, William Garner, Willis Garner and Moses Garner to Elisha Garner - Deed to be registered - which was duly proved by the oath of William Hinnant.

Page 116 #322 - Tuesday February 28, 1797 - William Hatcher, Christain Hatcher, William Garner, Willis Garner and Elisha Garner to Moses Garner, Deed to be registered - which was duly proved by the oath of Willian Hinnant.

Same page and number as above, same date - William Hatcher, Christain Hatcher, William Garner, Elisha Garner and Moses Garner to Willis Garner, Deed to be registered - which was duly proved by the oath of William Hinnant.

Apparently, the above three deeds divided property of the Joseph Garner Estate among the three unmarried sons, Willis, Elisha and Moses. William Garner may have received his share of property at the time of his marriage before his father's death.

Page 142 #397 - Wednesday November 29, 1797 - Ordered that Deed be registered - Christain Garner, William Hatcher, Willis Garner, Elisha Garner and Moses Garner to William Garner, which was proved by the Oath of Nathan Wilkinson.

The actual deeds have not been read to determine just how the property in the estate of Joseph Garner was divided. It is not known if William Garner received this additional property by purchase or division of the estate.

On February 1[illegible], 1795 a True Inventory of the Estate of Joseph Garner, Decd. was recorded to-wit:

EDWARD HATCHER, first son of WILLIAM HATCHER, "The Immigrant"

0-0-0A
HATCHER, William, "The Immigrant"
Born 1614, in County, England.
Died 1680, in Henrico County, Virginia. Will dated 20 February 1676/77.
WILLS & DEEDS, Pt. 1, p. 121, Proved 1 April 1680.

Married 1635/6, in Henrico County, Virginia.*

Born
Died

Children:
1-1-1A, Edward, born 1637.
2-1-1A, Henry, born 1638.
3-1-1A, William, Jr., born 1640, died prior to 1661.
4-1-1A, Benjamin, born 1644.

*There has been much discussion and research in recent years regarding the wife of William Hatcher. To date, although several names have been put forward, nothing has been proved. The first name proposed, Alice Emerton, must be dismissed on the very grounds that it was proposed: being the sole woman on William's first Land Patent, 1 June 1636. She is also listed on at least two other Patents of the same period granted to other men. Research done for Emory G. Hatcher in England has put forth the name of Marian Newport. While this could be a valid marriage, it is doubtful that Marian ever came to Virginia. (see note following listing for Edward Hatcher). Certainly her name cannot be traced through the descendants of the first four generation of William. These generations show the common names to be Mary, Martha and Sarah, with Mary having the edge. But a bias must be applied against the name of Mary since Edward Hatcher married Mary Ward, giving it an unfair advantage. Using this bias, Martha became the most common name, and there is no correlation between Marian and Martha. This is just conjecture, but it is a starting point for further research.

And the there is the controversy surrounding Susanna, wife of Thomas Burton. It is very doubtful that any documentation shall ever come to light to conclusively prove who she was, but most researchers agree that in all probability, she was the daughter of William Hatcher. The destruction of the early Henrico Co., VA. records during Bacon's Rebellion in 1676 has made the proof virtually impossible. But one can always hope.

HATCHER, Edward
Born 1637, in Henrico County, Virginia.

Died 1711, in Henrico County, Virginia. Intestate. Inventory dated 28 September 1711. WILLS 7 DEEDS (1710-1714), p. . Recorded 5 November 1711.

Died

Children:

1-2-2A, Mary, born 1658, m. 1. John Burton, Jr., 2. Gilbert Elam, Jr.

1-2-4C, Edward, Jr., born 1661/2, married Jameson.
1-2-5D, Martha, born 1663, married Richard Gower.
1-2-6E, Sarah, born 1665, married 1. Matthew Turpin, 2. Joseph Tanner.
1-2-7F, John, born by 1673, married Mary Hancock.
1-2-8G, Seth, born by 1675, m. 1. unknown, 2. Mrs. Elizabeth (Perrin) Alday.

The extant records of Henrico Co., VA. offer no explanation for the eight year gap between Sarah and John, but there are two possible answers. First, and most plausible, is that many children born during this period did not live much beyond infancy. Second, that Edward was married twice. Lacking any evidence, this option has not been given any serious consideration.

From the various depositions given by Edward Hatcher from 1676 onward, it has been difficult to determine just when he was born. After much discussion and profesional consultation, we have determined (contrary to the voiced and printed opinions of a number of sources) that Edward could not possibly have been born in England. The abscence of Edward's name or that of a wife for William on the earliest of William's Land Patents (1 June 1636, subsq) is of sufficient proof that William was not married at the time he arrived at Jamestowne. Otherwise he would have claimed an additional 50 acres of land for each of them.

1-4-9A,	female, born 1737, married Arthur Pitman.
1-4-10B,	Hancock, born 1740, married 16 August 1763, Margaret Watkins.
1-4-11C,	John, born 1742, married Mary Pitman.
1-4-12D,	Jeremiah, born 1745.
1-4-13E,	Mary, born 1747.
1-4-14F,	Sarah, born 1749, married 11 December 1770, James Watkins.

The will of John Hatcher of Granville Co., NC is not that of 1-4-11C, John Hatcher, Jr. The names of the children given in this will are not Hatcher names, but are highly indicative of belonging to persons in what we term "The Quaker Bunch". I have been unable to date to place him in this group either.

1-4-11C, John Hatcher is stated in his father's will as living out of "state". There is enough information to indicate that he was living in Craven Co., SC at the time. It is unclear whether or not this applies to the original Craven Co. or the current one. This area needs further research.

No further information.

THE HATCHER FAMILY

REV. FRANCIS CAMPBELL SYMONDS, D. D.

The name "Hache" in Norman-French means "a light battle-ax." After the Norman invasion of England, the word was anglicized to "Hatcher."

The Hatcher Coat-of-Arms is described in Fairbanks' Book of Crests: "Hatcher Lines, an arm Embowed, vested azure, charged with three bars argent, holding in the hand proper, a branch of olives Vert."

In Careby Manor, Lincolnshire, England, is an inscription on a tombstone dated 1564, recording that the Hatchers buried there were of the ancient family of Hatchers, for many generations the Lords of this Manor.

I. From those Hatchers was descended William Hatcher, likewise of Careby, England, who was a member of Parliament, and took up arms against the King and for this, being seized by the King's forces, was indicted for treason in 1643.

II. His son William was born in Careby, England, about 1614. (25 W 91.)

"William Hatcher came into this country about 1635 and figured conspicuously as a resident of Henrico." (25, W 91).

On June 1, 1636, he received a patent for land for the importation of himself and three others into the colony. (5 W 133-138) (5 V 98)

In the land grant office in Richmond are recorded the several grants of land issued to this William Hatcher, in Book 1, page 433, 850 acres; Book 1, page 559, 150 acres; Book 6, page 529, 227 acres.

"In their beginnings in Henrico, the Hatchers . . . were very well to do people." (24, W. 266.) William Hatcher, the immigrant became a member of the House of Burgesses from the County of Henrico, and served in that capacity in 1644, 1645, 1646, 1649 and 1652. (25, W 91; 24, W. 266.) Colonial Virginia Register, p. 65; 5 V. 98)

At the beginning of the Session of November 1654, the House of Burgesses made the following order: "Whereas Coll. Edward Hill, unanimously chosen speaker of this house, was afterwards maliciously reported by William Hatcher to be an atheist and blasphemer. . . . And forasmuch as the said William Hatcher . . . hath also reported, That the mouth of this house was a Devil. . . . It is therefore ordered by this house, that the said William Hatcher, upon his knees, make an humble acknowledgement of his offence unto the said Coll. Edward Hill and Burgesses of this Assembly; which accordingly was performed, and then he, the said Hatcher, dismist paying his ffees."

"William Hatcher was again Burgess in March, 1658-9. So far as the extant records show, this was his last public service; but the temper which induced him to denounce Speaker Hill, got him into trouble at the time of Bacon's Rebellion. At a court held by the Governor and Council, March 15, 1676-7, "William Hatcher being brought before the court for uttering divers mutinous words tending to the disquiett of this his Majesty's countrey, and it being evidently made appeare what was layd to his charge by divers oaths, and a Jury being impanelled to assesse the damages, who bring in their verdict that they award the said Hatcher to pay ten thousand pounds of tobacco and caske, which verdict of the jury this honourable court doth confirme; but in respect the said Hatcher is an aged man, the court doth order that the said Hatcher doe pay with all expedition eight thousand pounds of drest porke unto his Majestie's commander of his forces in Henrico county, for the supply of the souldiers, which if he fayle to doe, that he pay eight thousand pounds of tobacco and caske the next cropp, and pay costs."

There is recorded in Henrico County a deposition dated 1677 of William Hatcher then aged about sixty-three years. (5 V. 98.) This confirms our previous statement that William Hatcher was born about 1614.

The children of this William Hatcher, Sr., of Henrico County were: 1. Edward Hatcher. In Valentine Papers by Edward Pleasants, page 1976, we find: "Edward Hatcher, Sr., of Neck of Land, son of Wm. Hatcher of Henrico County." This Edward Hatcher was born about 1633. (24 W. 208; 5 V. 99.)

"In June 1672 is recorded in Henrico an agreement of Edward Hatcher, Thomas Shippey and John Davis to go on a trading expedition among the Indians. (6 V. 406.)

"In Oct. 1683 testimony was given in regard to a race arranged between Edward Hatcher and Andrew Martin. The winner to have the other's horse." (2 V. 295.)

Edward Hatcher's inventory in Henrico Records 1710-1714, p. 106, is dated Sep. 28, 1711.

"In 1684 his wife was Mary." (5 V. 99) Valentine Papers, page 64; 27 W. 187) "Seth, among the sons of Edward Hatcher (1633-1711) of Henrico may have come from Seth Ward, and hence Edward Hatcher's wife Mary, may have been a daughter of Ward."

The children of this Edward Hatcher were: (1) Edward. (Valentine Papers, p. 1981) (2) John. (Valentine Papers, p. 1981) This John Hatcher married Mary Hancock who was born 1675. Her lineage is traced in Va. Mag. Vol. 33, page 109. The will of Robert Hancock of Henrico County dated June 1, 1708 names his son-in-law, John Hatcher and Mary his wife. This John Hatcher moved to Edgecomb precinct, N. C., according to Valentine Papers, p. 2011 and the Henrico County Deeds and Wills, Vol. 2, page 664.

(3) Seth. (5 V. 99; 27 W. 189).

(4) William. "Edward Hatcher, Sr., Wm. Hatcher, Sr., John Hatcher & Seth Hatcher, sons of the afsd Edward Hatcher, Sr., July 7, 1712." (Valentine Papers, page 1982, 5 V. 99).

(5) Sarah. "August 2, 1682, Edward Hatcher . . . to his daughter Sarah Hatcher." (Henrico County Records, 1677-92, p. 222) (5 V. 99) In 1686, Matthew Turpin married the daughter of Edward Hatcher. (5 V. 100) In 1686 Edward Hatcher made a deed to Henry Turpin, son of his daughter Sarah." Sarah Hatcher in 1689 (a widow of Matthew Turpin) married Joseph Tanner. (25 W. 90)

(6) Martha who married Richard Gower.

2. Henry Hatcher, the son of William Hatcher, the immigrant, married Anne Lound, the daughter of Henry Lound. (24 W. 278).

The will of Henry Lound of Henrico, proved November 1708 names a grandson Henry Hatcher. "On September 1, 1677, Ann, relict of Henry Hatcher deceased was granted administration of her deceased husband's estate. (Henrico Records 1677-92, p. 33; 27 W. 192.)

The children of this Henry Hatcher and Ann Lound were: (1) Henry, (2) William, (3) Mary, (4) Ann and (5) Matthew. (5 V. 100)

"In Aug. 1678 Henry Lound was their guardian" (27 W. 192)

"Henry Lound in his will dated July 1708, probated Nov. 1708, names among other parties grandson Henry Hatcher and granddaughters Ann Ward, Mary Tanner and Martha Blanks." (Henrico Records, Vol. 1706-1709; 27 W. 192)

"Captain Seth Ward married Ann daughter of Henry & Ann (Lound) Hatcher." (27 W. 194)

The will of William Hancock, Lower Norfolk Co., dated April 14, 1687, named "Loving mother, Sara Piggott," kinsman William Moseley, loving friend, Arthur Moseley.*

According to J. River Childs, the first mention of Robert Hancock in Henrico County Records occurred in 1679, on which date he is included in the list of tithables, with one mentioned. He served on the jury for the year 1679 and 1682. On April 2, 1683, William Byrd conveyed to Robert Hancock 157 acres of land for 500 pounds tobacco. In 1684, Mary Lyggon, widow of Colonel Thomas Lyggon, made a deed of gift to "her son-in-law Robert Hancock" and to his children, Sarah and Mary Hancock. On October 30, 1686, Robert Hancock patented 600 acres of land in Henrico for the transportation of twelve persons to the Colony.

In the Quit Rent Rolls of Henrico County, 1704, Robert Hancock is shown as owning 860 acres of land. In June, 1708, shortly before his death, he deeded to his daughter, Johan Hancock, and his son-in-law, Samuel Hancock, her husband, 200 acres and at the same time made a similar grant to his son-in-law, John Hatcher, and "to my daughter Mary." His will, witnessed by Captain John Bolling, John Alday, and James Rutledge, was dated October 18, 1708, and probated March 1, 1709.

Johan (Lyggon) Hancock, the wife of Robert Hancock, made a deposition in 1683, which gave her age as 30 years. From this we know that she was born in 1653. She survived her husband seventeen years, and made her will, to which she signed her name "Johan," on February 22, 1726, and same was probated in Henrico County, November 7, 1726. Witnesses: Mary Elam, Mary Dudley, Arthur Moseley, Jr. In her will she states: my debts and funeral charges to be paid; to dau. Sara Moseley, Mary Hatcher, and Joan Hancock, 1 shilling, sterling each; son Robert Hancock, 1 shilling, etc.*

II. Johan[2] Ligon, daughter of Colonel Thomas[1] and Mary (Harris) Ligon, was born in 1653, and died in 1726. She married about 1672, Robert Hancock,[c] who was a man of comparatively comfortable means in his day. He was born about 1659, and died 1709, a son of Sara Hancock Piggott, and removed from Lower Norfolk County to Henrico County in the year 1708.[d]

Excerpt of the will of Mrs. Sara. Piggott of Lynn Haven Parish, Lower Norfolk County, Va., dated April 1, 1689, and proved May 15, 1689: "Unto my granddaughter, Susannah Moseley, a fether bed, with all the furniture thereunto belonging, foure pewter dishes, two ewes, one chest, one negro woman, one large table cloth and half a doz. of ozonbrigs napkins, a heifer, a paire of good sheets, four breeding sows, and a horse called Sparks; unto my granddaughter Mary and Susannah Moseley all my wearing clothes; unto my grandson George Hancock, son of William Hancock, one ewe when he comes of age, . . . etc., unto my grandson Edward Moseley one ewe and one doe,. . . etc., etc."[e]

From the above will, we make these deductions: Sara, surname unknown, married 1st, one Hancock; married 2nd, Mr. Piggott; the two husbands have not been discovered, though a detailed search in Lower Norfolk County Records might disclose them. The wife of Arthur Moseley is placed first among these children because Mrs. Sara Piggott named her Moseley grandchildren first in her will.

Simon Cockrell History

Simon Cockrell, third son of Thomas Cockrell, continued to live in Johnston County after the death of his father, and his name appears several times in early North Carolina records. Below are references to those records of Johnston County: 30 August 1802: Ordered that Simon Cockrell be appointed overseer of road in room and district of Allen Watkins 2 March 1803: Simon Cockrell to be overseer of road and was selected as a juror 25 May 1803: Simon Cockrell selected as a juror 22 August 1803: Simon Cockrell selected as a grand juror 28 February 1814: Simon Cockrell was security for William O'Neal, an appointed constable 17 May 1816: Simon Cockrell, a security for Ann Cockrell, as administratrix of the estate of Stephen Cockrell 25 November 1817: Simon Cockrell, bondsman for Jesse Bailey, for the estate of Elizabeth Bailey September 1818: Simon Cockrell served on the grand jury All records indicate that Simon Cockrell continued to live on his farm of 250 acres on the west side of Little Buffalo Creek at the fork of the east prong, until the 1830s when he took "Alabama Fever." In 1832, the upper Creek Indian lands of Alabama, lying east of the Coosa River, were one of the most attractive Indian cessions. No sooner was the treaty signed than the inevitable flow of speculators, surveyors and bureaucrats from the Indian office began to engulf the new country. Among the new arrivals, farmers and those connected with agricultural work predominated. This land was an opportunity for aggressive, ambitious men with some capital. Landlookers were hard-headed practical pioneers. Immigrants came in a steady stream to Coosa and Randolph Counties by horse, in wagons, on foot and a few by the newly established stage lines. Houses were going up as if by magic, fields were being cleared and crops planted. In the countryside, those with shelter provided accommodations for the newcomers and charged for their services. There were no postal routes until the establishment of a stage line. It ran once a month. Social intercourse was rare and churches were an important institution. Economic development was largely agricultural. Corn was the basic frontier subsistence crop; cotton the cash crop and the route to market was overland to water. During the 1830s, Simon Cockrell and his family became a part of this Alabama frontier, and it was also during this time that Dicey, his wife, died. In 1840 Simon had living with him in Randolph County, Alabama, Tobias, Byers and Elum, his sons. Simon's son, Thomas and his family were living in the county also. By 1850 two other sons of Simon, Jonathan and Jordan, had brought their families to the county. During the 1840s while in Randolph County, Simon died. The Cockrell family consequently lived in the Randolph, Coosa and Clay Counties area of Alabama for more than thirty years before moving to Mississippi.
